

Skills Assessment Worksheet

Transferrable Skills generally are not associated with a particular job or task. Transferable skills are usually broader and related to leadership, communication, critical thinking, analysis, and organization. These are skills that can be transferred and utilized in a variety of different kinds of jobs and career paths.

1. Print the list of skills below and mark each column as described. You can have the same skill marked more than once in each column.
2. What skills have you already acquired and feel competent doing? In the first column, mark each skill in which you feel competent.
3. What skills do you enjoy, even if you are not proficient at them? In the second column, mark those skills that you really enjoy.

What skills would you like to learn, acquire or develop further?
